

Pump House Museum

AND LEARNING CENTER

HISTORIC OTTAWA BEACH

Contact: Dan Aument
616-304-2787

The Pumhouse Museum and Learning Center announces first of its “Summer Event Series”

The Pumhouse Museum and Learning Center announces the first of its “Summer Event Series” presentations which will feature John Gronberg, President, Holland Harbor Historic Lighthouse Commission and Valerie VanHeest, principal of Lafferty and VanHeest. The presentation is entitled:

“Big Red: Everything You Thought You Knew But Didn’t”

The Event is open to the public at a cost of $5.00 per person. Members of the Historic Ottawa Beach Society have free admission to the event.

The Pumhouse Museum and Learning Center has recently undergone many building improvements including adding air conditioning, sound system upgrades and restrooms.

The Pumhouse Museum is located at 2282 Ottawa Beach Road, Park Township, near the Holland State Park.

For more information on the Pumhouse Museum and Learning Center, visit the website at www.historicottawabeachsociety.org

The Pumhouse Museum and Learning Center is affiliated with and operated by the Historic Ottawa Beach Society, a 501(c)(3) organization.

###